A study in Vedic astrology with special reference to the profession as mathematics teachers

T Sreerama Murthy and Dr. Rudresh M Shastri

Abstract

Vedic Astrology is a science which is based on basic assumption that planets do influence us that law of karma and theory of cause and effect is genuine and there is continuity of life even after physical death. Certain positions and groupings of the stars and planets in relation to earth correspond to various types of events which occur during one's life time and astrology assists in predicting such events. Vedic astrology gives clues regarding the profession of natives. This is possible by observing the horoscope of natives. A study was made to understand the impact of Vedic astrology on natives to become a Mathematics teacher. It is a combined effect of different signs, planets and houses which shows profession a person is likely to take. For judging a native's profession the entire horoscope is to be taken in to be taken in to consideration and not only the 10th house.

Keywords: Vedic astrology, horoscope, planets and stars, profession, mathematics teachers, signs, houses

Introduction

With the help of the horoscope of a native the acumen will predict various aspects of life. Education, marriage, career, wealth and children are some of them. Before making any prediction an astrologer must be conversant with all the Karakatwas and natural characteristics of all the signs, planets and houses.

Planetary relationship, planets position, aspects, conjunction, ownership of a sign/house and tenancy are to be considered for making any prediction. Predictions concerning professions are troublesome because of the complex nature of modern social, economic and political conditions.

We can read from the Jataka Parijatha (15- 1) 'from the 10th house you can ascertain a person's authority, rank, ornaments, dress, activities, agriculture, renunciation, religious activities, means of lively hood and fame'. Naturally the profession depends on one's education, his mental makeup and such other factors.

We have to study various rules for determining the profession of a native. In modern times this is very difficult task. A native may have multiple professions. We have to intelligently consider various combinations in a horoscope before arriving at any conclusion. It is the entire horoscope which has to be considered and not the tenth house alone for determining a native's profession.

A teacher is a guiding light and a symbol of hope that gives the students courage and strength to shape their life in the right way. Profession of a native as a teacher in general and mathematics teacher in particular can be assessed by various combinations in the horoscope. Karakatwas of various houses for determining the career as mathematics teacher are to be considered.

Fourth House: Academic education

Fifth House: High learning and wisdom, intelligence

Tenth House: Success and status, rank and renowned, respect and reputation,

Responsibilities, permanency (in service), profession, promotion, honour

Vedic Astrology and Profession as Mathematics Teacher

When we begin to find out the impact of Vedic astrology on the profession as mathematics teachers we need to assess the strength of the 4th house, 5th house and 10th house. Based on this the study was taken up. For this 50 samples were collected from all over Andhra Pradesh state. They were working in Government schools. Place of birth, date of birth and time of birth of the samples were collected with the help of volunteers. Of the 50 samples 43 were male teachers and 7 were female. Rasi chakra, Navamsa chakra and Bhava chakra were generated. Based on the information data was generated.

Findings and Conclusions

1. Table 1 shows the distribution of birth signs in Elements
2. The fiery signs have 30% of samples, the earthy signs have 24% of samples, the airy signs have 28% of samples and the watery signs have 18% of samples.
3. It seems that there is not much effect of element on profession. However there are more chances to become mathematics teachers for the natives of fiery and airy signs.
4. Table 2 shows the distribution of birth signs as per quality
5. The movable signs have 30% of samples, the fixed signs have 44% of samples and the dual signs have 26% of signs.
6. The natives born in fixed signs have more chances to become a mathematics teacher.
7. Table 3 shows distribution of samples as per time of birth.
8. In the time between 0.00 hrs to 12.00 hrs have 66% of samples and in the time between 12.00 hrs to 0.00 hrs have 34% of samples.

9. The natives born in the time between 0.00 hrs to 12.00 hrs have more chances to become a mathematics teacher.
10. Table 4 shows distribution of samples as per birth star and owner planets.
11. The birth stars owned by the Sun has 12% of samples, the birth stars owned by the Moon has 8% of samples, the birth stars owned by the Mars has 22% of samples, the birth stars owned by the Mercury has 8% of samples, the birth stars owned by the Jupiter has 16% of samples, the birth stars owned by the Venus has 6% of samples, the birth stars owned by the Saturn has 10% of samples, the birth stars owned by the Rahu has 10% of samples and the birth stars owned by the Ketu has 8% of samples.
12. It seems that there is not much effect of birth star on profession. However there are more chances to become mathematics teachers for the natives born in the birth stars owned by Mars and Jupiter.
13. Table 5 shows the repetitions of Lords of 4th, 5th and 10th houses.
14. Mars repeated 35 times, Venus repeated 31 times and Jupiter repeated in 25 times in 4th, 5th and 10th houses as Lords.
15. Table 6 shows the repetitions of planets in 4th, 5th and 10th houses
16. Mercury repeated 17 times, Rahu 17times, Moon 15 times, Jupiter 14times and Sun 14times in 4th house, 5th house and 10th houses as planets.
17. As per the repeated combination in the respective houses the native has possibility to become a mathematics teacher.
18. The position of planets like Mars, Venus and Saturn plays a vital role towards the profession of Mathematics teacher.
19. If Mars is the Lord of the respective 4, 5 & 10TH Houses then the possibilities are higher.
20. If Jupiter is posted in 5th house gives less result but if it become Lord of 5th house then the results are good.
