Abstract

Vedic astrology is a concept of deep science, which is based on the fundamentals, rules, and facts that the planets affect us. The principle of Karma, cause and effect is the real truth in science, which greatly affects our lives. Life defines the work done by us and its cause and its effect which we can also call the result. The Vedic chart which is the mirror of our life, guided by the powers of the universe by the seven sages, which tells our whole life. Through this paper, we are trying to understand "How a person should determine Rudraksha according to his Vedic chart. The planets found in the sky, their lord, position, strength, condition, etc. affect our entire life. An astrologer must be aware of certain points before recommending the right Rudraksha. Correct Rudraksha is not recommended according to the person's zodiac sign, ascendant, 6th, 8th or 12th house. In this regard, we have analyzed N number of horoscopes so far. We have analyzed more than 50 charts to recommend the best Rudraksha, which included Planets, Nakshatras, Mahadasha, Degrees, Exaltations, Debilitations. Apart from this, we guide you on the appropriate day with the right rituals and keeping in mind the problem of chart and personality, we also guide you on how many faces of Rudraksha, when and how to wear it. We consider Many elements before we recommend. We also see whether the Rudraksha is said to be its lord or not and in which Nakshatra it is and which house it is aspecting it's good.

We consider several elements before making a recommendation. There are many aspects we need to be careful about like whether it is Rashi lord, fifth and ninth lord, Mahadasha, Navamsa, position of planets and their degrees.

We also see which Rudraksha is said to be its lord and which Nakshatra it is in and which house it is aspecting. Its good and bad elements may be retrograde or set. Thus after being fully aware of the results some factors to be considered before recommending Rudraksha should do. In some cases, if the enemy planet is strong, the Rudraksha it is recommended to take

We can look at the position of the 5th, 9th or 1st (Lagna) lord of the planet whose Mahadasha is going on and if the position of ascendant lord is good and there is no aspect on 6th, 8th or 12th house and it is not debilitated, we can consider further.

Apart from these situations, we need to understand what the needs, queries and needs of the person are. Correct analysis of the chart and the person's problem area is extremely important. Above this the gemstone should be 100% natural. The astrologer also has to clean and energize the Rudraksha as per the dedicated rituals. Along with this, much important information has to be given like on which day to wear it, with which Rudraksha it will match and which Rudraksha should be avoided. Many conditions such as what to eat and what not to eat are absolutely important and should be well informed before one is prescribed a Rudraksha. Hence, an astrologer plays an extremely important role in analysis, correction, correct advice, recommending the right Rudraksha with any small but important information to the customer.

Introduction

What is Rudraksha?

Rudraksha is a kernel of a fruit or as said a Type of seed. Usually this tree is found in hilly areas. According to religious beliefs, Rudraksha originated from the water glands of lord Shiva's eyes. It is believed that after severe austerity, when lord Shankar opened his eyes, some tears came down on the earth and the Rudraksha tree was born from those tears.

Rudraksha is composed of two words, "Rudra and Aksha" is considered to be a symbol of lord Shiva, as "Rudra" is a "name for lord Shankar" and "Aksha" means "tear". That is why it is said that the person who adorns Rudraksha is dear to Lord Shankar.

Rudraksha is one of the miraculous creations of nature, where the seed is shaped by a number of clefts on its surface. These clefts are known as "mukhis" or "faces". There are about 1 to 22 Mukhi Rudraksha present. In most cases, 1 to 14 Mukhi Rudraksha are used for astrological remedies. A particular Mukhi Rudraksha is believed to encounter the malefic effects of a specific planet. This unique bead has many splendid properties influential enough to control human behavior and destiny. The secret lies in the wonderful electro-mechanical properties the bead invokes, when it interacts with human aura.

Astrology and Rudraksha

Astrological horoscope is based on 9 planets, 12 zodiac signs, 27 constellations and 12 houses. The basics of the whole future is their cooperation among themselves. Planets are considered to be the creatures of astrology.

When Rudraksha touches the body, its electromagnetic power solves every problem. Rudraksha is an auspicious bead that has been highly revered in many cultures across the globe.

Astrology is the study of celestial bodies and their effects in the birth chart of an individual. Rudraksha are closely associated with humans and so are the planets. Our body has many chakras out of which there are seven main chakras. If any of these chakras are blocked, an individual may face problems on the social, personal and professional front. Similarly this positioning of the planets in the natal chart of an individual can affect the overall lifestyle of a person. One of the most striking qualities of the Rudraksha beads is that if a particular Rudraksha bead or a combination of beads is worn on a specific body part it can work wonders. It not only takes care of the chakras but also aids in pacifying the malefic of the planets.

Every Rudraksha is associated with a planet, nakshatra, rashi, deity and chakras. All of those are interrelated because they all represent the same frequency of energy.

Astrology is a very deep science but over the years its practice has deteriorated and most astrologers lack the depth and understanding it takes to accurately interpret and practice astrology and follow the ethos. Over the years many forms have come up like Brihat, Nadi, Parashara, North Indian style, South Indian style and every astrologer will recommend a different Rudraksha based on his own biases and understanding. The biggest flaw is that since a layman can't understand many of it's very difficult to connect with and most people have to trust that the advice and guidance given the astrologer is correct. Planets may play a pivotal role in the life of every individual. If these planets are positioned in the correct house then an individual leads a good and peaceful life whereas, if the planets are not in the correct houses, it creates a lot of problems in the overall life segments of a person. In order to balance and curb the malefic of the planets, Rudraksha can be of great help. specific planet and help an individual lead a better life.

A person gets many auspicious results by wearing Rudraksha according to their respective zodiac signs (rashi). Wearing Rudraksha as per the zodiac, planet and constellation multiplies its benefits. Rudraksha is very useful to get rid of planetary defects and other problems. Wearing the correct and fault free Rudraksha as per the horoscope is like a blessing.
